46 Years – 50 years	6% of one Annualized Premium

Annexure 1 – A Simplified Summary of Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938 (Fraud, Misrepresentation and Forfeiture)

1. A life insurance policy cannot be repudiated by an insurer on any ground whatsoever after expiry of three (3) years from:
 - a) the date of issuance of policy; or
 - b) the date of commencement of risk; or
 - c) the date of revival of policy; or
 - d) the date of issuance of a rider to the policy;

whichever is later.
2. On the ground of 'fraud' (as the term has been described in point 4 below), a life insurance policy may be repudiated by an insurer within three (3) years from:
 - a) the date of issuance of policy; or
 - b) the date of commencement of risk; or
 - c) the date of revival of policy; or
 - d) the date of issuance of a rider to the policy whichever is later.
3. If the insurer intends to repudiate a life insurance policy, it has to communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which such decision is based.
4. Fraud includes the following acts committed by an insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce issuance of a life insurance policy:
 - a) suggestion of a fact which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
 - b) active concealment of a fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
 - c) any other act fitted to deceive; and
 - d) any such act or omission as the law specifically declares to be fraudulent.

Mere silence is not fraud, unless under the given circumstances it is the duty of the insured or his agent to speak.
5. An insurer cannot repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud, if the Insured /beneficiary can prove that:
 - a) the misstatement/suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge;
 - b) there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact; or
 - c) such misstatement/suppression of a material fact was within the insurer's knowledge. The onus of disproving fraud is upon the beneficiaries if the policyholder is not alive.
6. A life insurance policy can be repudiated within three (3) years on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to expectancy of life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document basis which policy was issued or revived or rider issued.
7. If repudiation is on the ground of misstatement and not on fraud, the insurer shall refund the premium collected to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees, within a period of ninety (90) days from the date of repudiation.
8. However, the insurer can call for proof of age at any time if it is entitled to do so and the policy will not be considered to be repudiated merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof of age of life insured.

Annexure 2 – A Simplified Summary of Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 (Nomination)

1. The policyholder of a life insurance policy covering his own life may nominate person(s) to whom the policy benefits will be paid upon his death.
2. If the nominee is a minor, the policyholder may appoint a person to receive the policy benefits during the minority of the nominee.
3. A nomination can be made at any time before the policy matures. Nomination may be incorporated in the policy or may be endorsed on the policy communicated to the insured and can be registered by the insurer in the records relating to the policy.
4. Nomination can be cancelled or changed at any time before policy matures, by an endorsement or a will, as the case may be. A written notice in writing of change or cancellation of nomination must be delivered to the insurer. Otherwise, the insurer will not be liable if a payment is made to the nominee named in the policy document or the insurer's records.
5. On receipt of notice along with the prescribed fee, the insurer should grant a written acknowledgement to the policyholder regarding registration of a nomination or cancellation or change of nominee.
6. A transfer or assignment as per Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 shall automatically cancel the nomination, unless assignment is made to the insurer or other transferee or assignee for the purpose of a loan. In such a case of assignment for the purpose of a loan, the nomination will not get cancelled, but the nominee's rights will be affected to the extent of the insurer's or transferee's or assignee's interest in the policy. The nomination will be revived on repayment of the loan.
7. The right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any life insurance policy will not be affected by the nomination.
8. In case of nomination by policyholder whose life is insured, if the nominee(s) dies before the policyholder, the policy benefits are payable to the policyholder or his heirs or legal representatives or holder of succession certificate.
9. If nominee(s) survive the person whose life is insured, the amount secured by the policy shall be paid to such survivor(s).
10. If the nominee is a parent, spouse or child of the policyholder whose life is insured and such nominee dies after the policyholder but before his share of the policy benefits is paid, then, such share shall be paid to the heirs or legal representative of the nominee or holder of succession certificate of such nominee.
11. If policyholder dies after maturity but the policy benefits have not been paid to him because of his death, his nominee shall be entitled to the policy benefits.
12. The provisions of Section 39 are not applicable to any life insurance policy to which the Married Women's Property Act, 1874 applies or has at any time applied. Where nomination is intended to be made to spouse and/or children under the aforesaid legislation, it should be specified on the policy.

[Disclaimer: This is only a simplified version of Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 prepared for general information. You are advised to refer to the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended by the Insurance Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 for complete and accurate details.]

Annexure 3 – A Simplified Summary of Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 (Assignment and Transfer)

1. This policy may be transferred or assigned, wholly or in part, with or without consideration. Such assignment or transfer may be made by an endorsement upon the policy itself or by a separate instrument under notice to the Insurer.
2. The instrument of assignment should indicate:
 - a) the fact of transfer or assignment;
 - b) the reasons for the same;
 - c) antecedents of the assignee;
 - d) the terms on which assignment/transfer is made.
3. The assignment must be signed by the transferor or assignor or their duly authorized agent and attested by at least one witness. Unless the following is delivered to the insurer, the insurer may not act upon the transfer or assignment:
 - a) a written notice of the transfer/ assignment; and
 - b) either the endorsement or instrument itself or its copy certified to be correct by both transferor and transferee or their duly authorised agents.
4. On receipt of notice along with the prescribed fee, the insurer shall issue written acknowledgement. Such acknowledgment will be conclusive evidence against the insurer of duly receiving the notice.
5. If the insurer maintains one or more places of business, such notices shall be delivered only at the place where the policy is being serviced.
6. The insurer may accept or decline to act upon any transfer or assignment or endorsement, if it has sufficient reasons to believe that it is:
 - a) not bonafide; or
 - b) not in the policyholder's interest; or
 - c) not in public interest; or
 - d) is for the purpose of trading of the insurance policy.
7. Before refusing to act upon a notice of transfer or assignment, the insurer should communicate the reasons for doing so in writing to policyholder within thirty (30) days from the policyholder giving the notice. Any person aggrieved by such refusal may prefer a claim to the IRDAI within thirty (30) days of receipt of the refusal letter from the insurer.
8. The priority of claims of persons interested in an insurance policy would depend on the date on which the notices of assignment or transfer is delivered to the insurer; where there are more than one instruments of transfer or assignment, the priority will depend on dates of delivery of such notices. Any dispute in this regard as to priority should be referred to IRDAI.
9. Every assignment or transfer shall be deemed to be absolute assignment or transfer and the assignee or transferee shall be deemed to be absolute assignee or transferee, except:
 - a) where assignment or transfer is subject to terms and conditions of transfer or assignment; or
 - b) where the transfer or assignment is made upon condition that the proceeds under the policy shall become payable to policyholder or nominee(s) in the event of assignee or transferee dying before the insured; or the insured surviving the term of the policy.
10. Such conditional assignee will not be entitled to obtain a loan on policy or surrender the policy.

In other cases, the insurer shall, subject to terms of assignment, recognize the transferee or assignee as the absolute transferee or assignee and such person:

- a) shall be subject to all liabilities and equities to which the transferor or assignor was subject to;
- b) may institute any proceedings in relation to the policy; and
- c) obtain loan under the policy or surrender the policy.
