

STAY ALERT. STAY PROTECTED.

We have received reports of unsolicited calls made and mails sent to some of our customers in the name of Aviva Life Insurance, other financial institutions or the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA).

We urge you to be careful and not fall prey to these calls or mails seeking confidential information or asking you to surrender the policy. We, at Aviva, believe that insurance helps secure your family in the long term and will not ask you to surrender your policy and/or divulge any confidential information.

We value your continued patronage and the trust that you have reposed in the company and it is our constant endeavour to provide you with the best of our services at all times.
